6. All bids must be per lot as numbered in this catalogue. No lots will be broken.

7. We reserve the right to withdraw any lot prior to the sale.

LATE REMITTANCE FOR PURCHASES CONSTITUTES JUST CAUSE TO ABROGATE ALL RETURN PRIVILEGES FOR ANY REASON.

9. Lots that have been examined prior to the sale may not be returned for any reason other than authenticity.

10. Grading is a subjective description in the opinion of the cataloguer, as to the state of preservation of a particular coin or lot. The term "Proof" or "Specimen" is used to describe a method of manufacture, and not a grade or condition. Such terms are the opinion of the cataloguer and shall be deemed to be part of the description and not an attribution. No warranty, whether expressed or implied, is made with respect to such adjectival descriptions, which can and do vary among experts.

11. Please note: Auction sales are not approval sales. You must assume the responsibility for paying for all material that is awarded to you.

12. Bids for all lots must be submitted in even dollar amounts, or they will be reduced to the next even dollar amount. Successful bidders will be awarded the lot at a nominal advance over the second highest bid. When identical bids are received, for a lot, preference is given to the first bid received. We reserves the right to refuse any bid, that we believe has not been made in good faith.

13. We can not be responsible for errors in bidding. Please make certain that you bid on the correct lot and that your bid is the maximum that you are willing to pay.

14. An estimate is provided for each lot. This estimate represents, in the opinion of the cataloguer, the current market value of the lot. Lots may, of course, sell for above or below this estimate.

15. All photographs in this catalogue are of the actual items being sold.

16. Postage, insurance and sales tax, if required by law to be collected, will be added to the invoice for any lot(s) invoiced to successful bidders. All lots delivered in the state of California are subject to applicable sales tax. Individuals purchasing lots for resale must submit an exemption certificate, signed by the purchaser or his agent and recognized by the state of California, with their current resale certificate number or be subject to the sales tax.

17. We reserve the right to require payment in full before delivering any lot to a successful bidder. It is the buyer's responsibility and obligation to have the lots fully insured while in his/her possession. Risk of loss is on the buyer. All lots sent to foreign countries, including Canada and Mexico, will be billed at an additional 1/2 of 1% for insurance. The minimum insurance fee is $5.00. Please send shipping instructions. Normally all lots will be sent via registered mail.

18. In the event a bidder fails to make remittance promptly, we reserves the right to resell the merchandise and bidder agrees to pay for the reasonable cost of such a sale and also to pay any difference between the resale price and the previously successful bid.

19. If the invoice for this sale is not paid for in full, when due, the unpaid balance will bear interest at the highest rate permitted by law until it is paid in full. If the matter is referred to an attorney for collection, bidder agrees to pay all attorney fees, court costs and other costs incurred by Ponterio & Associates, Inc. The courts of San Diego County, California shall have exclusive jurisdiction and venue over any suit initiated by Ponterio & Associates, Inc. to collect past due invoices and the service of process by certified/registered mail, return receipt requested, shall be sufficient to confer "in personam" jurisdiction over bidder.

20. We reserves the right to postpone this sale for a reasonable period of time, as the result of any act of war, natural calamity or significant relevant event, which, in the judgment makes it inadvisable to hold the sale as scheduled.

INSTRUCTIONS TO NEW MAIL BIDDERS

Bidding by mail permits you to participate in an auction as though you were attending it in person. The procedure is really quite simple. You tell us what you want, and the maximum amount you are willing to pay. We then, as your personal agent, try to buy the items listed for you at the lowest possible price.

LOT	BID
2060	400
2075	350
2444	300
2633	2000
2662	1400

The enclosed mail bid form has two sides for you to fill in. The front side provides all the information we will need to register you as a bidder, execute your bids for you and deliver your lots to you if you are a successful bidder. Please answer all the questions that may apply to you. DON'T FORGET TO SIGN YOUR BID SHEET.

On the back side are pairs of columns where you may list your bids. After carefully reading the lot description, write down the lot number and the maximum amount you are willing to pay for that lot. Don't forget that a 10% buyer's fee will be added to your actual purchase price if you are the lucky bidder. Continue to list lot numbers and bids for each of the lots you are interested in buying.

When we receive your bid sheet, we will record your bids at the amount you have authorized us to bid for you, and we will, in addition, note any lots where an increase is authorized if absolutely needed to win the lot. For example, if the sample bid sheet shown at the right were yours, we would enter your bid on lot #2060 as $400. If yours was the highest bid received, you would be the purchaser at $400. (plus 10%) or perhaps even less. If the second highest bid received on the lot was substantially less, your bid would be reduced to a "normal" increment above that second-highest bid, just as it would be if you were present at the sale yourself to execute your own bids. If you have authorized a percentage increase on the front side of your bid sheet and the bidding by others has exceeded your basic bid, we will then, as your personal agent, increase your bid to the minimum amount necessary to obtain the lot for you. The authorized increase will never be used except when your basic bid is exceeded.

Before you mail your bid sheet, do be sure to check it over to make certain you have bid on the correct lot(s) and that your bids are the ones you are both willing and able to pay for. Enjoy the catalogue, place bids on everything you would like to buy. If time is running out and you feel your bid sheet may arrive too late to be included, you may call our office between the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday, giving us the lot numbers and amount you will pay for each lot, over the telephone. Please make sure you immediately send in your bid sheet for confirmation. Also, you may FAX your bid sheet to us. As your personal agents we wish you every success.

VIEWING OF LOTS

Lots will be available for viewing by prospective bidders at our office each day, Monday through Friday, by APPOINTMENT ONLY, between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. JUNE 7, 1993 through JUNE 22, 1993. Additionally, all material will be available for viewing at the Long Beach Convention Center.

HOW ABOUT COLLECTING CHINESE PAPER MONEY?

Do you want a new challenge in your collecting interests? If you are not already collecting paper money of China, you might want to consider this - at least in some part.

There are, literally, thousands of different types of Chinese banknotes, not to mention many, many more date, branch offices, or signature varieties. The field is so vast that, unless you are truly driven to obtain one of everything in your area of interest, China could be the place for you. Notes from this country offer a tremendous range of topical collecting - different central or regional governmental issuing authorities, military issues, foreign banks which operated within China (from 12 different countries), or particular vignettes or designs.

Collectors of banknotes with railroad or ship vignettes have a very wide arena when it comes to China, as do those who might wish to collect vignettes which are non-Chinese in origin, notably the Statue of Liberty (Chinese American Bank of Commerce), Viking ships (Sino-Scandanavian Bank), or representations of "Germania" (Deutsche-Asiatische Bank). Similarly, quite a few Chinese communist bank issues portray foreigners; Marx, Lenin and Stalin. Coin vignettes, mainly "Dragon" Dollars during the Imperial period and "Junk" Dollars under the Republic, as well as "Spade" coins, are available from a number of banks, including Wan I Chuan Bank, Anhwei Yu Huan Bank, Hupeh Government Mint, Bank of China, Central Bank of China, and China South Sea Bank.

One can gather quite a collection of different banknote denominations from China, especially if you consider the availability of notes for Cash, Taels, Ch'iao, Fen, Coppers, Rubles, Mexican Dollars, and Gold Customs Units in addition to the usual Yuan/Dollar values, and the existence of such denominations as 30 Cents, 300 and 600 Million Yuan, or 3 and 6 Billion Yuan notes. Collecting all of the values (and dates of issue) of a particular series is quite popular, a favorite of many being the Imperial Ta Ching series of the 1850's, ranging from 500 to 100,000 Cash (Pick A9/A13). Unfortunately unless you are versed in the Chinese numbers this series can quickly resemble something akin to a date set of Jefferson Nickels; they all look pretty much the same. An attractive multi-colored series which is quite popular was issued by the Market Stabilization Currency Bureau between 1915 and 1923; all of these notes have 2 obverse vignettes, usually a pagoda and the Temple of Heaven (Pick 598A/615). One can gather in quite a few notes if pursuing all the issue dates and places of issue, but all but one of these notes are fairly inexpensive.

The Temple of Heaven is a popular motif, appearing on banknotes from quite a few banks, including the Bank of China, Industrial Development Bank of China, National Bank of China, Provincial Bank of Manchuria (very impressive large vignettes), Bank of Tung Pei, etc. and on a Foreign Exchange Certificate from the Peoples Republic.

Another typically Chinese motif is the Great Wall, which appears on notes issued by quite a few banks, including the Bank of China, Central Bank of China, Federal Reserve Bank of China, National Commercial and Savings Bank, as well as on another Foreign Exchange Certificate. As to another Chinese motif, what could be more Chinese than dragons? Again, these appear on a large number of notes from such banks as the Ningpao Commercial Bank, Russo-Asiatic Bank, Kirin Yung Heng Provincial Bank, Wan I Chuan Bank, Kiangnan Yu-Ning Government Bank, Peiyang Tientsin Bank (very colorful notes), Harbin Municipal Government, etc., etc. In a similar light, there are a tremendous variety of buildings illustrated on Chinese notes, with pagodas of all sorts and shapes being quite popular, some nice examples coming from the Bank of Agriculture and Commerce, Bank of China, Bank of Communications, Farmers Bank of China, and the Bank of Hopei.

Flags present some interesting collecting possibilities with some nice representations appearing on banknotes from the Bank of Communications (Pick 103/109), Central Bank of Manchukuo, Yunnan "Fu Tien" Bank, Fukien-Chekiang-Kiangsi Soviet Bank, Chinese National Pacification Army Notes, and so on.

Earlier I mentioned that notes illustrating ships were quite popular; one vignette which was used widely by the American Bank Note Company, shown on the Bank of Communications 50 Yuan of 1924 (Pick-119), particularly strikes my fancy as it shows an ocean-going vessel with steam up, waves at the bow, and an anchor line into the water ahead (I must admit that a retired Navy officer pointed that out to me). This particular vignette appears on notes prepared by this printer for a variety of banks in Latin America as well as in China, thus affording a somewhat wider collecting area. For the collector of Zeppelin material, China offers one note which has a Zeppelin as part of its front vignette, this being a 25 Yuan note of 1941 from the Bank of Communications (Pick-160).

The sale of archival printers proofs and specimens by the American Bank Note Company has created a great deal of interest in Chinese banknotes as many of the items sold had previously been unknown to the collecting community. This has prompted a large number of new entries in the next edition of "The Standard Catalog of World Paper Money". In a similar manner, discoveries of new varieties of previously recorded banks or issues, especially among the Communist local issues where a surprising amount of new material has "surfaced" in recent years, will be reflected in new catalog entries. Additionally, new reference materials and catalogs from China are becoming available in this country, and this will only increase the interest in China as we become more aware of the materials available.

During the 4th. and 3rd. centuries BC the coinage of Rhodos came to be accepted throughout southwestern Asia Minor as a general trade coinage, readily identified by its designs and good silver content. Between 200 and 170 BC various "imitations" of Rhodian coins (not bearing "P O" on the reverse) came into use, some issued in Crete (possibly by Rhodians), others in mainland Greece. By studying various hoards, it is presumed that many were struck by Macedonian or other northern Greek entities which were garnering resources and military forces in their fight against the spread of Roman control and influence in Greece. It is fairly well accepted that this type of coin was made specifically to pay mercenaries from Crete who were employed by Macedon, as they would have been familiar with Rhodian coins at home and be more likely to accept them than an unfamiliar coinage from Macedonia or Thrace.
